

Cismont Social News.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Cismont, Va., May 14.—Amongst the guests staying at "Cloverfield" may be mentioned Mrs. Sutton and Eugene Sutton, of Richmond; K. Mitchell, from Pittsburg; Mrs. Steinback and Miss Johnson, from Ashbury Park, N. J.; Mrs. Massey, from Potomac, Md.; S. T. Caves, from Philadelphia.

Mr. and Mrs. Crundall and Miss Edwanda Crundall, of New York, have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Joslin, at "Clover Hill".

Mrs. Townsend, of "Raynham Hall," has been in Baltimore for a few days. The Kewick Matinee, on Wednesday, May 11, Bridge was played, and afterwards a delicious repast was thoroughly enjoyed. Those who meet regularly are Mr. and Mrs. Magruder, Mr. and Mrs. Fellows, Dr. and Mrs. Thurman, the Misses Long, Mr. and Mrs. Boocock, Mrs. Crittenden, Mr. and Mrs. Boocock, Mrs. Joseph Everett, Mr. and Mrs. Horne, Mrs. Corridine, Miss Pugh and Miss Ingersoll.

The Cobham Bridge Club had an extremely enjoyable afternoon at the library Monday afternoon. A great deal of important business was accomplished. For the purpose of raising funds there will be a play and festival early in June. The prospect promises much pleasure, as well as a great deal of effort.

The V. C. U. is busy rehearsing and arranging for an entertainment to be given at the Cismont auditorium shortly.

Mrs. Hackley Morrison and her two small sons are staying at Hopdale. Mrs. Shackelford and Miss Mary Shackelford, of "Seven Oaks," are visiting at "Pindowill".

On Thursday, Mrs. Murray Boocock, of "Castalian," entertained at luncheon the members of the chapter of the P. A. R. of Albemarle county. The guests came from Charlottesville to Keswick by train, and were met by carriages and driven to the castle, which looked its loveliest in the full beauty of leaf and bloom. The scent of mock orange and locust blossom filled the air, and roses in gorgeous profusion added their quota of color and perfume. Tables were laid in the dining-room and palm-rooms, and were enchantingly decorated with roses and cypresses. After a most enjoyable and delicious luncheon, a meeting was called to order by the regent, Mrs. William Wood, who made her report, which covered the events of the congress lately held in Washington. Mrs. Higginson, of Ivy, told of her experiences while there, and Mrs. Maphis' account of her interest in the "daughters of the daughters" caused delighted laughter. Those present were Mrs. Goetz, Mrs. William Wood, Mrs. R. T. Duke, Jr., Mrs. W. R. Duke, Mrs. Massey, Mrs. Huntington, Mrs. Probasco, Mrs. McCallahan Woods, Mrs. Thomas Page, Mrs. Tuttle, Mrs. Early, Mrs. Higginson, Mrs. Maphis, Mrs. Kaufman, Mrs. Pitts, Mrs. Bird and Mrs. Clay-Brown. The last named was Mrs. Boocock's house guest, and on this most eventful occasion was the guest of honor. Mrs. Clay-Brown, whose husband and his family are now in the army, is from New York. She intends leaving shortly for her summer home in Maine.

The commencement of the High School held recently were enjoyed by a very large crowd of friends and patrons. The weather being all that could be desired, the exercises of scholars marched into the large auditorium, singing "America," and with splendid effect, after which the act, then followed a spirited little comedy, entitled "The Old Maid's Convention," which thoroughly pleased the audience, and filled them with admiration for the talent displayed. The sweet, fresh faces of the young actresses, and the patient care and coaching of those who had supervised the rehearsals.

Captain Micajah Woods, always a popular speaker, was introduced most charmingly by Joseph Everett, and at once captured the attention of the assembly by the happy appropriateness of his speech. Especially were his remarks on the historical interest of this section of Albemarle appreciated.

PITIFUL CASE OF SKIN DISEASE

When Two Months Old, Baby had Pimples Spread All Over Body—Broke and Left Skin Like a Scald—An Awful Sight—Doctor Afraid to Put His Hands on the Child.

CURED AT SLIGHT COST BY CUTICURA REMEDIES

"Our baby when two months old was suffering with terrible eczema from head to foot, all over her body. The baby looked just like a skinned rabbit. We were unable to put clothes on her. At first it seemed to be a few matted pimples. They would break the skin and peel off leaving the underneath skin red as though it were scalds. Then a few more pimples would appear and spread all over the body leaving the baby all raw without skin from head to foot. On top of her head there appeared a heavy scab a quarter of an inch thick. It was awful to see so small a baby look as she did. Imagine! The doctor was afraid to put his hands to the child. We tried several doctors' remedies but all failed. Then we decided to try Cuticura. By using the Cuticura Ointment we softened the scab and it came off. Under this, where the real matter was, by washing with the Cuticura Soap and applying the Cuticura Ointment, a new skin soon appeared. We also gave her four drops of the Cuticura Resolvent three times daily. After three days you could see the body gaining a little skin which would peel off and heal underneath. Now the baby is four months old. She is a fine picture of a fat little baby and all is well. We only used one cake of Cuticura Soap, two boxes of Cuticura Ointment and one bottle of Cuticura Resolvent. If people would know what Cuticura is there would be few suffering with eczema. Mrs. Joseph Kossmann, 7 St. John's Place, Ridgewood Heights, L. I., N. Y., Apr. 30 and May 4, 1909."

Cuticura Soap (25c), Cuticura Ointment (50c) and Cuticura Resolvent (50c), for in the form of a medicine, are sold everywhere, or sent by mail for $1.00. Write to the Cuticura Ointment Co., P. O. Box 123, Boston, Mass. 02111. Mailed free. 32-page Cuticura Book, an Authoritative Treatment of Skin and Hair Troubles.

Semi-Annual Clearing Sale of

Women's and Misses' Suits

The Season's Greatest Bargains Here!

As is our custom each season, we will commence our Semi-Annual Clearing Sale of Women's and Misses' Suits To-Morrow Morning.

The advanced season brings this sale now instead of in the month of June or July, as in other years; you get the benefit. Customers who have attended these sales in the past will be here early. To those who are not acquainted with our methods of these sales—let us say that once each season we go through this department and place prices on some that are so low they are sure to sell at first sight. Cost or retail prices are not taken into account at these sales.

See Window Display!

Remember these are not a lot of odd out of date suits, but right in every particular, and have the MILLER & RHOADS label, which is a guarantee of quality and workmanship. We will not attempt to describe all of these garments, as the styles are so varied, and in many cases only one of a kind.

The following lots will give you but a meager idea of what you may expect. To appreciate the extent of this sale, you must examine the goods. After you have, we predict you will buy.

Come Early and Get Your Choice

Buena Vista Social News.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Buena Vista, Va., May 14.—Without doubt, the most brilliant social function of the season was given at Green Forest on last Saturday evening by the A. T. C. of the Southern Seminary, to the K. P. Society. The entertainment was in the nature of a course dinner. The house was decorated in beautiful shades of the color scheme, being the colors of the two societies and the colors of the Southern Seminary. The dinner was served in six courses, and handsome hand-painted cards marked the places of the guests.

Miss Ruth Bullard, the president of the A. T. C., presided at the punchy. The members of the A. T. C. are as follows: Misses Ruth Engle, Miriam and Margaret Umpholtz, Shelly Coats, Lolla Hillsman, Francis and Lois Bullard, Jessie Valentine, Rosa Peak and Hannah Beard; K. P. members

You Who Employ Men!

YOU know him well. He's the bright employee who would be worth ever so much more to you if his habits were regular. He's the man who has the intellect and brains to be of unlimited service to you. But you are not sure of him. Just when you need him most he falls down. His appetite is stronger than his will.

You can remedy this. Send him to the Keeley Institute at Greensboro. A course of treatment at our sanitarium will send him back to you benefited morally, mentally and physically. It will put new life—now ambition into him.

As an investment, it means money to you. It saves the loss of training up a new man. And it gives you back the man you found you could trust. It will be the best investment you have ever made.

Our book gives you all necessary data.
